

I should be able to listen to whatever station is available based upon markets based solutions. Commercial radio does not provide the variety nor does it consider the timeliness of when I need to hear pertinent information, such as traffic reports. Thank you.